Wm. Fetters Dead

William Fetters, aged 74, Civil war veteran and one of Elkhart township's most prominent citizens, died suddenly last Friday evening at the home of his brother Haman, in North Webster, where he had been on a visit. Born in Starke county, Ohio, he came to this vicinity when a boy and at the call of his country in '61, enlisted in Co. D., 142nd. Indiana Volunteers. His wife died about five years ago. Surviving now are the brother whom he had been visiting and several nieces and nephews. The entire community sincerely mourns his passing. The body was brought to Ligonier and funeral services were held from the United Baptist church there, with burial in Oak Park cemetery.

Ligonier Leader

HIS SEVENTY-FIFTH YEAR

Is Just Ended, After a Life Full of Unusual Experiences.

FLORIAN ZIMMER OF WAWAKA

Drummer Boy and Veteran of the Wars of the Prussian Rebellion. He Tells Many Incidents.

Drummer boy and veteran of the Prussian wars of the rebellion, Florian Zimmer, the well-known Noble county farmer who is living in retirement at Wawaka, has just passed his seventy-fifth birthday. The event was celebrated appropriately August 24 at his home in that town.

Mr. Zimmer does not boast the "six feet three" of excellent physique and the perfect health of his early manhood, yet he is not a feeble man and he makes an occasional trip to Ligonier to visit his numerous friends. It was on one of these recent visits that he vividly recounted in the Leader office, some of the tales of his early life—in Baden, on the field at Oppenheim and at Rastadt.

Florian Zimmer was born in Ettlingen, Baden, August 24, 1832. He enlisted at Carlsruhe as a drummer boy with the troops at the age of fifteen and for two years led the stalwart Germans to the music of his rattling sticks.

At the opening of the Baden rebellion in 49 he enlisted under General Franz Siegel against the government and served two and one-half years. He was a corporal during the last year of his service. Numerous battles occurred during the rebellion, but the names of many have slipped his mind. He recounts vividly, however, of the siege of Rastadt, the noted fortified town, which withstood the Prussians for several weeks.

Crouching at a table on which he had built an imaginary section of the famous Λ shaped wall. Mr. Zimmer illustrated a gunner's advantages, as he swept the barrel of an imaginary gun over the territory available from apex of the Λ. It was at Oppenheim where 250 comrades perished as they attacked the fort, and this survivor with alacrity drew on the floor the plans of the battle-field and showed where the army fell. Mr. Zimmer escaped injury during the whole rebellion but he lived a strenuous existence. The last night of the service when the troops had retreated to Constance for surrender, he slept on a stone. He received $160 for his five years of fighting and at the surrender the men lost everything but their clothing. Mr. Zimmer still has a clothes brush which is his only memento of the days in the rebellion.

One of the experiences which Mr. Zimmer remembers well was the sight of the beheading of a woman at Constance during the last year of service. She was put to death for having poisoned her husband and the execution occurred near the spot where John Huss, the religious martyr was burned at the stake early in the fifteenth century.

Mr. Zimmer remained at home a few months after the surrender of the army, and then persuaded his father to bring the family to America. Messrs. Jacob Sheets and Samuel Sessler of this city came from the same vicinity at about the same time.

The Zimmer family settled in the woods in Henry county, Ohio, in 1854 and two years later moved to Noble county. Mr. Zimmer's parents and two brothers are long dead but one sister, Mrs. Amelia Holtinger is living at North Manchester.

Florian was married in 1859 to Miss Mary Ann Shenneman of Wawaka and the couple has always resided in this county. They first lived at Buttermilk four years, then in Elkhart township four years, and Jefferson township seven years. Since 1875 they have lived near and in Wawaka.

Mr. Zimmer is a true citizen of the United States, as patriotic to the flag as any American. At the opening of the civil war he drummed for Capt. Braden at the enlisting station and helped to arouse enthusiasm for the war. His services there were greatly appreciated.

Gen. Franz Siegel whose name is familiar to all German-Americans was an intimate acquaintance during the Prussian trouble. He says that Siegel did not flee from Prussia like so many people but stayed as long as was possible. Mr. Zimmer talked with the general when he spoke at Kendallville during the campaign of 1888. He also knew Carl Schurz, the noted German-American statesman.

Two years ago at the solicitation of pupils in the Wawaka schools, Mr. Zimmer attempted to beat a drum at the school house but he was not successful because his wrists were to stiff. It is with modest pride that he tells of his last drumming experience. It was thirty-six years ago. He was returning home with a load of wheat when three Wawaka citizens stopped his wagon and forced him to climb down and give a little exhibition on the drum which they had secured. The little exhibition lasted a half hour but was enjoyed as much by the drummer as by his attentive listeners.

Mr. Zimmer has a kindly face that is continually lit up by as pleasant a smile as any old gentleman ever wore and he is thoroughly well-liked and respected wherever he is known. His quiet home with Mrs. Zimmer is near the Methodist church in Wawaka.

Mr. and Mrs. Zimmer's six daughters are married and live as follows: Mrs. Thomas E. Franks, Mishawaka; Mrs James Polson and Mrs Vern Stuff, Elkhart; Mrs Schuylor Hiliad, Kendallville; Mrs. Jacob Ramer, Elkhart township; Mrs. Henry Boeker, York township.

BAKERTOWN NEWS

Mrs. Bryan Forker returned to her home in Fort Wayne Monday, having been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Mahnesmith, the past two weeks

Florian and Mary Margaret Sheneman Zimmer at their home in Wawaka, IN- Southwest corner Route 6 and Main(?) St.

On the Way.

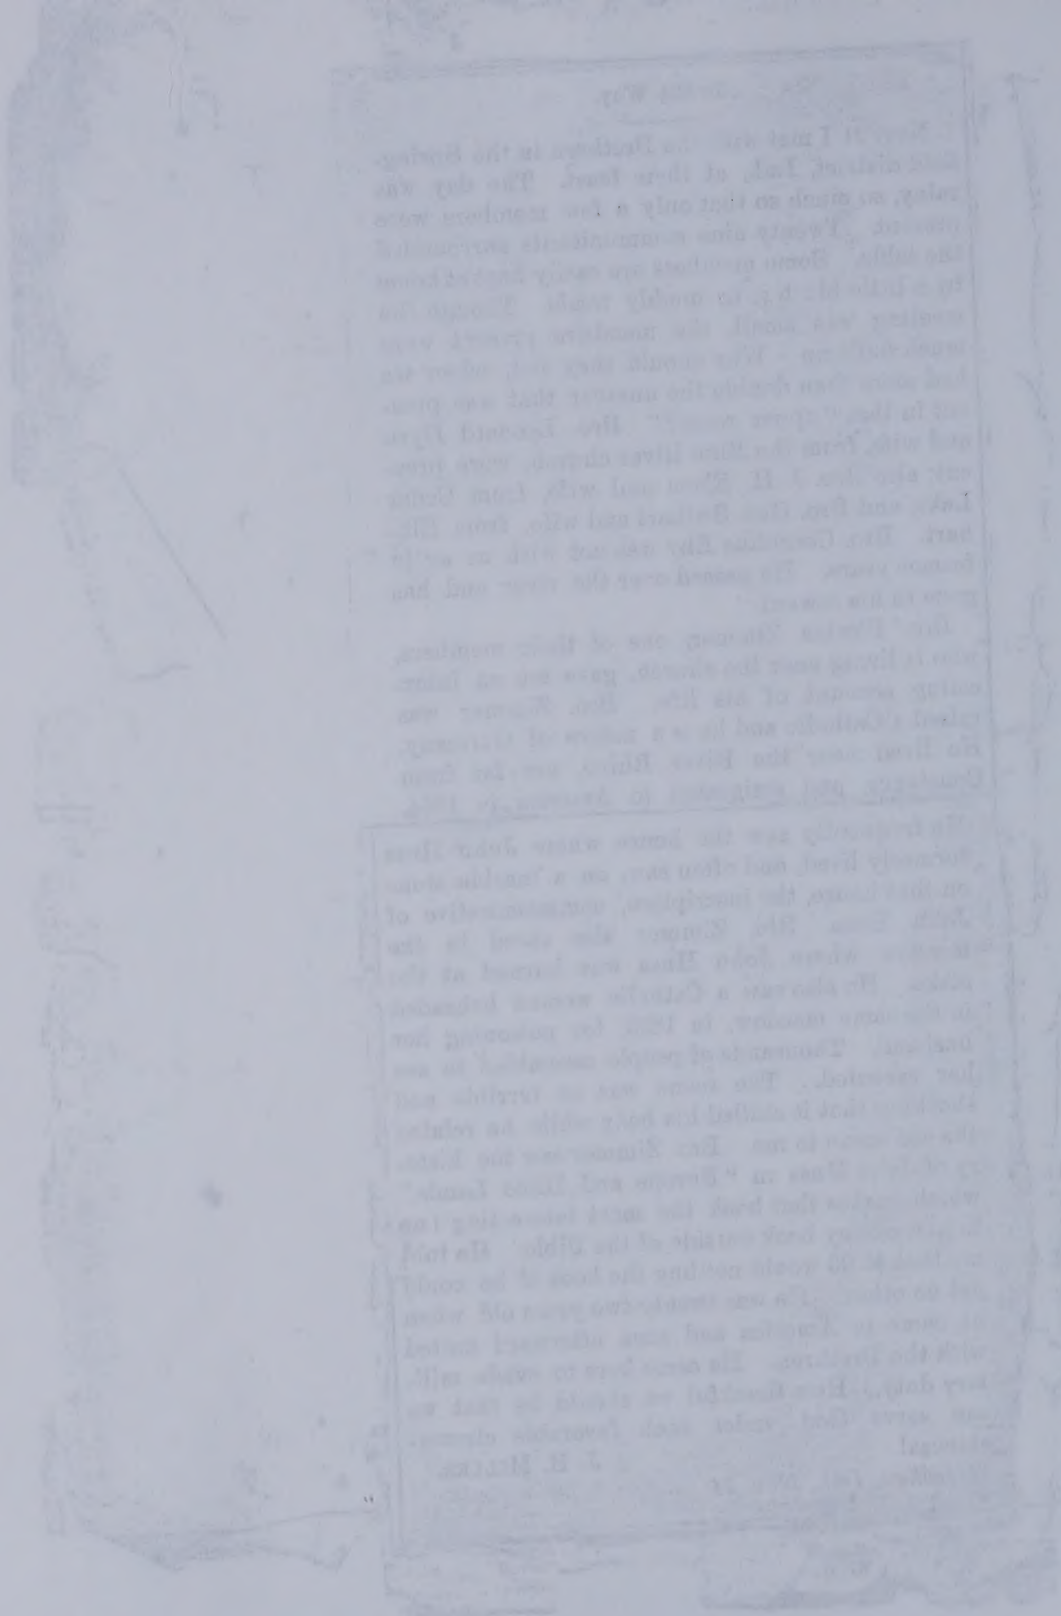
Nov. 21 I met with the Brethren in the Springfield district, Ind., at their feast. The day was rainy, so much so that only a few members were present. Twenty-nine communicants surrounded the table. Some members are easily kept at home by a little bluster, or muddy roads. Though the meeting was small, the members present were much built up. Why should they not, when we had more than double the number that was present in that "upper room?" Bro. Leonard Hyre and wife, from the Blue River church, were present; also Bro. J. H. Elson and wife, from Cedar Lake, and Bro. Geo. Swihart and wife, from Elkhart. Bro. Cornelius Eby was not with us as in former years. He passed over the river and has gone to his reward.

Bro. Florian Zimmer, one of their members, who is living near the church, gave me an intersting account of his life. Bro. Zimmer was raised a Catholic and he is a native of Germany. He lived near the River Rhine, not far from Constance, and emigrated to America in 1854. He frequently saw the house where John Huss formerly lived, and often saw, on a marble stone on that house, the inscription, commemorative of John Huss. Bro. Zimmer also stood in the meadow where John Huss was burned at the stake. He also saw a Catholic woman beheaded in the same meadow, in 1853, for poisoning her husband. Thousands of people assembled to see her executed. The scene was so terrible and shocking that it chilled his body while he related the sad scene to me. Bro. Zimmer saw the history of John Huss in "Europe and Bible Lands," which makes that book the most interesting one to him of any book outside of the Bible. He told me that $5.00 would not buy the book if he could get no other. He was twenty-two years old when he came to America and soon afterward united with the Brethren. He came here to evade military duty. How thankful we should be that we can serve God under such favorable circumstances!

J. H. MILLER.

Goshen, Ind., Nov. 24.

From a church (presumably Church of the Brethren) newspaper — with no date!
note: says he emigrated in 1854.



The Oak Grove Cemetery Association conveys to Mr Florin Zimmers for the sum of Five dollars ($5.00) the following burial lots to wit: Number Fifty five (55) and the north half of number Fifty eight (58) of the Oak Grove Cemetery. If the ~~said half lot No (58) is not used~~ by Mr Zimmers' family before Mr. and Mrs. Zimmers' death it shall go back to the Association. The cemetery is in Section Eleven (11) Township Thirty-four (34) North Range Nine (9) East in Noble County Indiana, and a plat thereof is in the possession of the Secretary of said association, to which plat reference is made for the location of said lot. Said lot shall be held with all of the priviliges and subject to all the conditions and restrictons contained in the By-laws, Rules and Regulations adopted, or which may hereafter be adopted by the board of Directors of said association.

In witness. The Grantor by its Secretary has hereunto affixed its name and corporation seal this 6th day of Oct 1893
